Why sponsor us

Targeted talent access

Meet students already self-selected into aerospace, many active on design teams, and connect with future talent in the industry

Visibility and brand exposure

Reach 200+ students and Montréal's aerospace community through the poster, social media, and event day presence.

Room to collaborate further

Beyond Aerofair, partner on info sessions, workshops, or guest lectures throughout the year.

Community

Support a student-run initiative and align your brand with McGill's internationally recognized engineering program.

Thank you!
